

How to Write an ESSS 2026 Manuscript

ESSS 2026 Secretariat *

Abstract — This document provides information on an ESSS 2026 manuscript.

1 Introduction

This document contains information regarding the preparation and submission of manuscripts for the ESSS 2026 Proceedings.

2 Preparation of the Manuscript for the Proceedings

The proceedings will be distributed as a file containing the submitted PDF manuscripts as they are. The copyright of the manuscript belongs to the Institute of Electronics, Information and Communication Engineers (IEICE). Please strictly adhere to the guidelines posted on the ESSS 2026 website

<https://esss.ieice.org/>

when preparing your manuscript.

2.1 Format

- Manuscript size: A4 format (297 mm high, 210 mm wide)
- The maximum number of pages is 2, including the title, author names, abstract, and main text, and plus an optional 3rd page containing references only.
- Capitalize the first letter of each word, excluding prepositions and articles.
- Margins: Top margin 20 mm, Bottom margin 25 mm, Left and Right margins 18 mm.
- Layout: Two-column format, font size approximately 10 pt.
- PDF file size: 3 MB or less.

The L^AT_EXstyle file and Word template for the ESSS 2026 manuscript are available from the ESSS 2026 website:

<https://esss.ieice.org/>

* Graduate School of Science and Engineering, Saitama University, Saitama, Japan. E-mail: ess-symp-2026-sec@mail.ieice.org

2.2 Header

On the first page of the manuscript, please ensure a top margin of 20 mm (or more) to provide sufficient space for the header. The header and footer (e.g., symposium title and page numbers) will be added by the committee after submission. Please ensure sufficient margins as specified.

2.3 Items to be Included on the First Page

Please include the following items on the first page:

- Paper Title (English)
- Author Name(s) (English)
- Author Affiliation(s) and Location (English)
- Abstract (approx. 100 words in English)

2.4 Regarding Colors and Photographs

Since the proceedings will be distributed as a file, the use of colors and photographs is permissible. However, please ensure that the content can still be understood even if it is printed in black and white. Also, please reconfirm that the PDF manuscript file size is 3 MB or less before submission.

3 Method of Manuscript Submission

Please prepare your manuscript as a PDF file. Your manuscripts will be accepted through the application form provided on the ESSS 2026 website.

For inquiries regarding the paper submission system, please contact:

ess-symp-2026-pub@mail.ieice.org

3.1 Important Notes

Please ensure that your manuscript meets the specified format requirements. Also, please embed the character fonts in your PDF manuscript file. It is highly recommended to verify that the PDF manuscript file can be viewed and printed correctly on multiple systems.

3.2 Copyright Transfer

Copyright transfer to the IEICE is required with the manuscript submission. The format and guideline of copyright submission will be provided on the ESSS 2026 website.

References

- [1] ESSS 2026 Secretariat, “How to write an ESSS 2026 manuscript,” 2026 ESS Symposium, Oct.–Nov. 2026.